PRESENTED

BY

To preserve the memories of our last year in high school, we, the Senior Class of 1941, publish this the first annual of Troy High School. May its pages increase the interest in our school for years to come.

TO THE SENIOR CLASS

OF 1941

For their untiring efforts and helpful advice, we dedicate this, the first annual of Troy High School to our advisors, Miss Helen Rolfes and Mr. Glover Grubaugh.

Administration

The first of the main principles of the administration is that the administration should be based on the principles of the law of the land.

SENIOR HISTORY

The fall of 1937 found a group of seventeen boys and girls who seemed to agree that life had suddenly become new and fascinating. What had made this change? Why, they were entering the long-awaited freshman year of high school. Why was this group so important to mention them here? They were the senior class of 1941. This class started their high school career with the determination to do big things. They began by electing officers for the year, who were: Glenn Helm, president; Bruce Baker, vice president; Mary Loomis, secretary-treasurer. Of course they could not expect to get along without anyone to guide them, so Mr. Amos was appointed to be their class sponsor. After two weeks of school had passed, they were subject to initiation. The sophomores made them do some of the silliest things. Everything went along smoothly, and then, one day in the latter part of October each member was presented with a ticket on which these words were written: "Vir integer sum." ("I am a fresh man.") This was to be shown at the door of Mary Loomis's home for admittance to the class Halloween party. In April they accompanied the sophomore and junior classes to view the masterpieces of art at the Toledo Museum. Several persons in the class participated in the music festival at Bowling Green, Ohio. To wind up their first year of high school, they enjoyed a weiner roast in Brinker's woods.

After a summer vacation, those seventeen students returned to the same old grind as sophisticated sophomores. Well, this year they wouldn't have to endure any initiation, but they could have plenty of fun with the new freshmen. They elected new officers. George Brinker became president; Bruce Baker, vice president; Ruth Kimmel, secretary; and Catherine Christiansen, treasurer. A high school Halloween party was held in the gymnasium. Of course the sophomores attended. At Christmas time, the high school held another party. The class was asked to present the play "Just What They Wanted" for the school Christmas program. One of their members, Alice Schmeltz, was the cheerleader for the school. In early spring, they enjoyed the party at the home of Margaret Christen.

SENIOR HISTORY

(Remember the beautiful mustaches the men teachers had that night.) Several members again took part in the music festival, some of whom played in the band and orchestra. At the end of the year they enjoyed a weiner roast with the juniors.

Here they were again--back in good old Troy High! This time as juniors. This was certain to be an eventful year! For one thing, two wings had been added to the school and the old building redecorated. New equipment was installed. These improvements made life much more pleasant at Troy and made it possible to add a few new subjects to those offered. Miss Rolfes became the new advisor. The officers elected for the year were: George Brinker, president; Bruce Baker, vice president; and Catherine Christiansen, secretary-treasurer. Oh, they must get busy and select a class play at once! The junior class attended the high school Halloween party and had a very good time. The play was selected and presented on December 12, 1939. The title--"The Scarecrow Creeps." O-o-o-oh, what a scare! It proved to be a great success and the proceeds made their bank roll much larger. In January, the class held a party at the home of Eloise Moenter. Everyone reported a good time. Alice Schmeltz decided to set sail on the sea of matrimony, so the class enrollment was reduced to sixteen. Toward the end of February everyone seemed to be very happy and excited. Why? The Troy Trojans were Wood County finalists and doing very well in the district tournament. The school year quickly drawing to a close, they honored the seniors at a "Dutch" banquet, which was held in the new cafeteria room on May 3, 1940. After the banquet, the group attended the Cla-zel theater at Bowling Green, Ohio. The juniors sadly realized that next year it would be they who would have to leave.

What, only eleven? Yes, only eleven of the former sixteen students enrolled for the senior year. They felt very down-hearted about this. To think that the others did not consider it worth while to finish high school! They all knew that this would be a very busy year, so they were not at all surprised at the great number of times they were called upon to meet with salesmen, etc. Everyone enjoyed the weiner roast which was held near Scotch Ridge in October. Was everything to happen on one day? The seniors received notice that their rings were at the post office. That same day they traveled to Livingston Studio in Toledo to have their pictures taken. Oh, that's right! the seniors decided to publish the first annual of Troy High School. This demanded a considerable amount of their time, but with the help of Miss Rolfes and Mr. Grubaugh, they managed quite well. Of course, the seniors attended the Halloween party held in the gym and everyone had a good time. Since the class is known for its ability to cooperate, the selection of the various graduation necessities was an easy task. Oh dear, only a few more weeks left! Ah! what's this! An invitation from the juniors! For what? The Junior-Senior Banquet held at the school on May 2. The room was decorated in Indian style. The seniors presented their class play, "Young Doctor Young", on May 8. Well, well, here they were at the end of their high school career! The class received much good advice at the Baccalaureate, which was held in the school auditorium. Rev. Veler delivered the message. On May 20, the senior class was assembled for the last time as a class--at the Commencement Exercises. Rev. Humbert was the guest speaker. That night, they realized as never before that Commencement was the beginning--not the end.

CLASS OF '41

Bookworm Bruce, the humorous Baker;
Eloise Moenter, the little homemaker;
Mary Loomis, the graceful dancer;
George McCrary, the champion lancer;
Ruth Kimmel, solo horn tooter;
Glenn Helm, handy with a bean shooter;
Catherine Christiansen, solo soprano;
Hazel Deuble, accompanying at the piano;
Margaret Christen, the efficient buyer;
And Forrest Swartz, the miniature flyer;
These, ten in number, each laddie and lass;
Comprise the '41 SENIOR CLASS.

CLASS SONG

Now we've reached our journey's end,
We must say goodbye and then,
We depart forever from the walls
Of old Troy High.

Sad but proud as here we stand
At our goal, our promised land;
We have had four years of learning
At dear old Troy High.

The class of '41
Has finally reached the time
To bid farewell to teachers, friends
Who've helped and been so kind.

We'll not forget you dear old school,
But now that we have reached our goal,
We must part and so we say
Goodbye to old Troy High.

SENIOR PROPHECY

As I sit and gaze into my crystal, I see a group of people seated on a stage. They seem familiar. Way back in my mind, I know who they are, but my memory seems to fail me. Now let me think--oh, I have it! They were the Senior Class of 1941. The picture fades. I call them back, but they have gone. Now let's see--that Commencement took place exactly twenty years ago. I wonder where they are now and what they are doing. Ah! soon I shall know. I see a light appearing. It grows brighter and brighter! Now some shadowy forms appear. Slowly they are becoming clear and distinct. Much to my astonishment I see the white walls of an operating room in the Ford Hospital in Detroit. A critical operation is being performed by the greatest surgeon of all time. At his side is his competent assistant. She is Catherine Christiansen, who is also a well-known surgeon. Catherine was president of the Class of '41.

The scene changes, and I see faintly a radio station in New York City. Let's listen to what the announcer is saying. "Ladies and gentlemen, keep your dial tuned to this station and listen to one full hour of entertainment brought to you every Friday at 9:00 P. M. by that genius of thought, the best of comedians, Bruce Baker." Well, well, Bruce is famous.

The scene fades, and now I see men approaching. Who is the man at the right? He looks familiar. Oh yes, I know. It is George McCrary. What kind of hat is he wearing? I can see clearly now. It is a sombrero. George is owner of a thousand acre ranch in New Mexico. He seems to be right at home on that pony he is riding.

Oh! oh! what is this? Hm-m-m, here we are in a court room. Who is that lawyer? Why, it is Glenn Helm. He is representing the I. E. Du Pont De Nemours Corp., a national concern. Glenn has been doing very well and hasn't lost any of his courtin' cases.

What is all this hustle and bustle about? Reporters running everywhere, telephones ringing, typewriters pounding away. A door opens and who is coming in but Eloise Moenter. Everyone is alert and very courteous when she appears. Eloise is the distinguished editor of the Pittsburg Press.

The scene is changing and what is all this? Uniforms! and how I love them! Look at that general over there. My, isn't he handsome with his broad shoulders. Why, that general is Forrest Swartz. Giving orders is very becoming to Forrest. I am sure he is well-liked, because everyone is smiling and waving at him.

The crystal is changing again. This time I am looking down a long hall. Coming toward me is a tall figure dressed in white. It looks like Hazel Deuble. Yes, it is her, now that I can see more plainly. She is superintendent of nurses at the Vanderbilt Hospital in Washington D. C.

Now I can see a very different scene. My, isn't this a pretty beauty salon! Wonder who the manager is! Why, that is Mary Loomis. She looks very trim in her uniform. She calls her salon "The Elite"--very appropriate for a shop on Fifth Avenue in New York City.

Look! the scene is changing again. This time I see a richly furnished office. Yes, it is the office of the President. Seated at a desk in the outer room, is Margaret Christen, his private secretary. She is a very competent and efficient secretary.

What is that I hear? Ah! music. My, it certainly is lovely and restful. That music teacher surely has done a fine job. Why, sure it is Ruth Kimmel. Everyone has heard of her. She directs the all-girl symphony that broadcasts on one of the national networks.

Things seem to be fading. Yes, the crystal is clear again. My, what a long way I have traveled. The Class of '41 has really been very prosperous. Thank you, dear crystal, for letting me look into the lives of these ten Seniors of the Class of '41 of dear old Troy High.

CLASS WILL

We, the SENIOR CLASS of 1941, Township of Troy, County of Wood, and State of Ohio, being of sound mind and memory, do make, publish, and declare this our LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT, in manner and form as follows:

The SENIOR CLASS bequeaths to the faculty that feeling of relief that they will have when we receive our diplomas.

We will to the juniors the seating arrangement at the rear of the study hall. (We wonder if they'll always be pestered with the question, "Do you seniors have special permission to talk?")

We will to the sophomores a better chance than we had.

To the freshmen we bequeath all our endurance to help them withstand the next three years.

We will our advisor, Miss Rolfes, to next year's freshman class.

To the seventh grade, we will any junk that we might forget to take with us when we leave.

Forrest Swartz wills his football shoes to Kenneth Bockbrader.

Catherine Christiansen bequeaths her stage fright to Donald Joseph.

We bequeath to Betty Swartz and Richard Hannan all the chewing gum under the seats.

Glenn Helm wills his "courtin'" ability, such as walking in the cemetery, to anyone who has the courage.

We will to the persons who get locker No. 13 a "hunk" of cheese for the mice.

Hazel Deuble bequeaths her quick wit and ready tongue in history class to Ardith Spahn.

CLASS WILL

We will to the boys who eat lunch in the senior section of the study hall all the crumbs and ends of pickles that are left on our desks.

Bruce Baker wills his forty-cent words to Lowen Meyer.

Eloise Moenter bequeaths her sotto voice to Lois Miller.

George McCrary bequeaths his plumpness to Vivian Rife.

Forrest Swartz, Glenn Helm, and George McCrary will their ability to concentrate on history while sleeping to whoever will sit in the front seat.

Margaret Christen bequeaths her many hours spent at the mineoscope and several bottles of correction fluid to anyone who has time and patience.

Ruth Kimmel wills her ability to "toot the tooter" to Fern Soles.

Mary Loomis wills her ability to have an answer for everything to Corky Juergens. (He could use it in bookkeeping.)

In Witness Hereof, we, the class of 1941, have hereunto set our hands and do seal this document the twenty-fourth day of March, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Nine Hundred and Forty-one.

JUNIOR NOTES

President	Joe Loomis
Vice President	Marcena Michel
Secretary-Treasurer	Lois Miller
Class Reporter	Ardith Spahn
Sponsor	Mr. Amos

The junior class, the largest in the school, has an enrollment of twenty-seven pupils.

At the beginning of the year we had a weiner roast at the home of June and Paul Kurfess.

The juniors are interested in making money for the banquet for the seniors. To earn money they sold blue and white Trojan emblems. Their next event was the class play, "Bolts and Nuts", presented on December 10. A large crowd enjoyed the play.

A one-act play, "The Pampered Darling", was given by a group of juniors on January 23 for the benefit of Infantile Paralysis. The cast included Marcena Michel, Delores Ruch, Geraldine Welling, Donald Joseph, Cornell Juergens, Glen Landwehr, Joe Loomis, and Lowen Meyer.

The junior boys have been active in athletics and all have participated in one or more of the sports. Lowen Meyer was manager of the football team. Richard Hannan was one of the managers of the basketball team. Joe Loomis and Richard Hannan are out for track.

The juniors spent many hours preparing for the Junior-Senior Banquet which was held at the school house May 2.

Joe Loomis, Lowen Meyer, Glen Landwehr, Geraldine Welling and Marcena Michel were on the honor roll the first semester.

Marcena Michel, Carolyn Johanssen, and Delores Ruch were cheerleaders.

Marcena Michel and Doris Pertner took the county scholarship tests at Bowling Green.

SOPHOMORE NOTES

President	Marie Brinker
Vice President.	Violet Schudel
Secretary	Esther Miller
Treasurer	Robert Harmeyer
Class Reporter.	Eileen Barber
Sponsor	Mr. Sturgeon

The sophomore class started the year with an enrollment of twelve. In October, Dale Grubs, of DeVilbiss High School, Toledo, joined our class, making a total of thirteen.

As a result of our combined efforts, we saw queer looking objects, identified to us as freshmen, parading the halls. The boys represented glamor girls in dresses and hairnets, and the girls made quite handsome boys in overalls and galoshes.

Three of our girls take home economics. They are Violet Schudel, Kathryn Jacobs, and Lois Samson.

The members of the Booster Club are Esther Miller, Marie Brinker, Eileen Barber, and Joyce Baker.

Esther Miller and Joyce Baker are librarians.

LeRoy Stewart, Gene Hannan, Donald Miller, Clyde Tracy, Dale Grubs, and Robert Harmeyer took part in the school athletics.

The band members of this class are Donald Miller, Robert Harmeyer, and Dale Grubs. Those in the orchestra are Marie Brinker, Donald Miller, and Dale Grubs. We contribute only two members, Eileen Barber and Marie Brinker, to the mixed chorus.

We had charge of the December chapel program. Joyce Baker was chairman of the program. Rev. Brose led us in prayer and Mrs. Roller directed us in song. Mr. Scibbie was our guest speaker.

Marie Brinker and Esther Miller were on the honor roll the first semester.

Freshmen

FRESHMAN NOTES

President Leon Bockbrader
Vice President. Harley Jacobs
Secretary-Treasurer Joanne Huss
Class Reporter. Ann Welling
Sponsor Mr. Grubaugh

Our freshman class entered high school with an enrollment of seventeen (ten boys and seven girls). Melvin Whitzel joined our class from Toledo.

We are proud to have a home room of our own with Mr. Grubaugh as sponsor and home room teacher.

After two weeks of school had passed, initiation was imposed upon us. We had to strut around in the junior and senior rooms with our beautiful clothes and our make up.

Our first party, a weiner roast, was held in Aspacher's woods.

We had charge of the January chapel program. Donald Stewart was chairman. Rev. Kaeding led us in prayer. Jean Aspacher, accompanied by her sister, Beatrice, sang a solo. Mr. Loomis spoke on sportsmanship.

Many members of our class took part in football, baseball, basketball, Booster Club, orchestra, mixed chorus, and band.

Although the boys are out of the music picture they make up for it in athletics. These boys participated in sports: Lyle Meyers, Donald Stewart, Donald Schmeltz, and Marvin Moenter. Patricia Reamsnyder, Vera McCrary, and Joanne Huss take an active part in music.

Melvin Whitzel and Donald Schmeltz are wrestlers in the freshman class.

The freshmen planned to have a party with the sophomores.

JUNIOR HIGH NOTES

EIGHTH GRADE

President Mara Christiansen
Vice President. Gene Ruch
Secretary-Treasurer . . . Shirley Dierker

We are happy to have three new pupils with us this year. They are Florence and Corrine DeMarco and Beverley Neifer. Geraldine Knettle moved to Minnesota in March and now we have an enrollment of sixteen.

Our class has formed an English Club to improve our English. It is called "Live and Learn." The officers are: President, Ruth Miller; Vice President, John Brose; Secretary, Nancy Kurfess. We have been participating in band, mixed chorus, orchestra, and junior high basketball.

The eighth grade enjoyed a Halloween party at the home of Chester Chambers. We had a weiner roast along the Toussaint Creek in April.

SEVENTH GRADE

President Richard Jacobs
Secretary-Treasurer Mary Harmeyer

This is our first year in junior high. We had to learn a new system of classes but we enjoy it very much now.

Our first class party was held at Frances Urban's home at Halloween time. We had a good time and hope to have more parties.

The English class formed a club called "Bigger and Better Speech Makers" to improve our use of English. The officers are: President, Jane Bringman; Secretary, Mary Louise Harmeyer.

Our class participates in the mixed chorus, band, orchestra, and junior high basketball.

Sixth Grade

Top Row: Wilma Witker, Norma Kopp, Paul Welling,

Bockbrader, Dale Brinker.

Second Row: Glen Welling, Robert Dierker, Franklin Jacobs, Kathleen Kurfess, Zoe Ann Wilson, LaQuitta Walker, Bonnie Kopp, Ellen Christen.

First Row: Elaine Helm, Delores Hannan, Keith
Fleming, Frederick Brinker, Lorraine Roach,
Darlene Myers.

GRADE NOTES

DETERMINATION

He was such a little fellow
He didn't know what to do,
And the schoolhouse so big and still
It scared him thru and thru.

He knew he had to go inside,
But behind the big, wide doors,
Most anything might grab a boy
And drag him on the floors!

But he set his teeth in earnest,
For he hadn't a single doubt;
He knew he had to learn the things
His daddy talked about!

--Ethel Cromer

The fifth grade has one new pupil this year. She is Alma Neifer, who came from Webster. However, Richard Dix, Marilyn Dix, Gloria Aspacher, Donald Aspacher, and Kenneth Aspacher have moved to Gibsonburg. Jean Knettle has moved to Hector, Minnesota.

These pupils in the lower six grades had perfect attendance for the first semester:

First and Second Grades; Theodore Barber, Eloise Dierker, Alice Jane Hessman, Carol Jean Rolf, Doris Rothenbuhler, Ruth Samson, Richard Samson, and Martha Rife.

Third and Fourth Grades; Naomi Brinker, Mary Lou Jacobs, Delores Hazel, Russell Welling, Ellen Christen, LaQuitta Walker, Zoe Ann Wilson, Robert Dierker, and Darlene Myers.

Fifth and Sixth Grades; Geraldine Carr, Elizabeth Young, Grace Emmitt, Dolores Kinker, George Rife, Harold Carr, Gloria Aspacher, Wilma Witker, Norma Kopp, Mary Helm, Rose Manoylovich, Lena Young, and Marlyn Rolf.

GRADE NOTES

In the Wood County Achievement Tests given in October, every grade scored above the county median in all the subjects. Tests were given in reading, writing, arithmetic, spelling, and English.

In October, the boys and girls joined the Junior Red Cross. As one of the projects for the year, they made Thanksgiving favors for the children at the juvenile home in Bowling Green.

The grades presented this Christmas program on December 18:

Pantomime	Toy Shop Window
	First and Second
Playlet	Bringing Santa Up to Date
	Third, Fourth, Fifth, and Sixth
Exercise.	The Lights of Christmas
	Third, Fourth, Fifth, and Sixth

The lower grades had charge of the March, April, and May chapel programs. Vera Fehr, a missionary in Japan for many years, was the guest speaker at the March meeting in charge of the fifth and sixth grades. Everyone enjoyed her talk on her experiences as teacher in a girls' school there. Norma Kopp was the chairman of the program. At the April program, in charge of the third and fourth grades, Rev. Meyers gave a very inspiring talk. Lorraine Roach was chairman of the program. The first and second grades presented a health program for May.

The boys and girls of the lower grades enjoyed the parties which were held on the various holidays during the year. A Halloween party was the first of these to take place. Popcorn, candy, and apples were served to all the pupils. At Christmas time each room had a gift exchange and a treat. The Christmas spirit was shown by having the rooms decorated and a tree in each room. February 14 found every one anxiously waiting for the Valentine boxes to be opened. Each one received his share. All made ready for the Easter rabbit by making Easter baskets.

Third Grade

Second Row: Naomi Brinker, Marilyn Dix, Marilyn Coy, Jacqueline Minnix, Theone Ruch, Delores Hazel, Shirley Mae Rife.

Second Grade

Top Row: Ray Ford, Donald Caris, Robert Tracy, Doris Rothenbuhler, Martha Rife, Joan Schroeder, Eloise Dierker.

First Row: Richard Samson, Richard Dix, Helen Snyder, Carol Jean Rolf, Ruth Samson.

First Grade

Second Row: Arla Christen, Grace Jacobs, Marilyn Miller, Rae Myers, Janice Hacker, Maxine Leking, Betty Carr.

First Row: Dale Jacobs, Robert Aspacher, James Helm, Theodore Barber, Jeannean Wilson, Alice Jane Hessman, Eleanor Brose.

Corky Juergens would do his homework, the teachers would all have heart attacks.

Reynolds Bakery went out of business, this younger generation would have to find a new "hang-out".

Donald Joseph becomes a famous pianist, no one will be surprised.

Rosemary Fortlander would have to buy her own gum, she would not be so liberal with it.

Ann Welling keeps on quoting Shakespeare, Mr. Amos will have to take a back seat.

Lois Miller's hair were ever out of place, she'd die of mortification.

Donald and LeRoy Stewart wouldn't like basketball so well, would they practice in their backyard every day?

Eileen Barber stopped reading books, publishers would go out of business.

People would not die, Glen Landwehr would have perfect attendance.

The school bought a new mimeograph machine, Mr. Grubaugh would not have to ask the seniors to buy aspirin.

Chuck Austin didn't laugh, the school would be a dreary place.

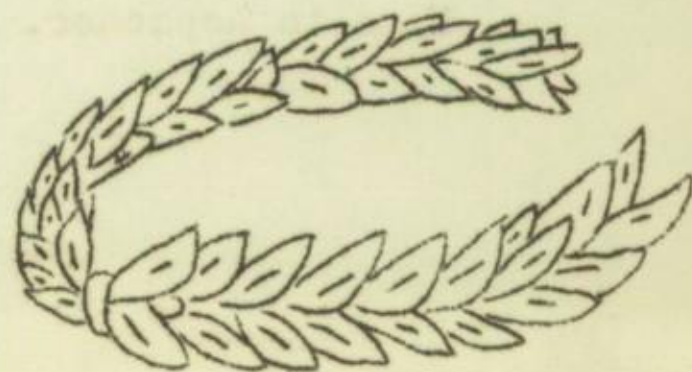

A whole week passed without one little test, the students would declare another Thanksgiving day.

Class meetings were held during school time, then the sophomore boys would attend.

Bruce's name were Butcher instead of Baker, would he still be so jolly?

MUSICAL NOTES

SENIOR BAND

The senior band consisting of forty members participated in a contest for the Wood County Class B High School Bands at Bowling Green. The band played for the chicken supper. At this time Robert Bauman made recordings of two selections. Moving pictures of the band marching were shown. They furnished music for the county basketball tournament.

Wednesday morning March 19, the band furnished several numbers for a chapel program at Tontogany High School. Some of the members represented the band at the Wood County Music Festival held at Bowling Green in April.

Last summer the band marched in the parade and played at the Memorial Day service. They gave several Saturday evening concerts.

The P. T. A. gave the band their capes and caps. The caps are blue with white visors and trimmings. The capes are blue with blue silk lining and have a white "T" on the right side.

The Women's Auxiliary presented us with two fine flags, one the American flag and the other the school flag. The Mothers' Club gave us money to buy a bell lyre. These three articles will improve the appearance of the band when marching.

JUNIOR BAND

The junior band, a group of eight not quite ready for the senior band, includes the following pupils: John Deuble, bass drum; John Hannan, snare drum; Jane Bringman, C melody saxophone; Wilma Witker, clarinet; Paul Welling and Keith Rife, cornets; Charles Kurfess, alto horn; Chester Chambers, baritone.

They played "Activity", a march, for the Mothers' Club, February 11, 1941.

MUSICAL NOTES

BEGINNERS' BAND

The beginners' band consists of the following thirteen pupils: Cornets--Russel Ruch, George Rife, Glen Welling, Marlyn Rolf; Drums--Billy Loomis, Imogene Broka; Saxophone--Zoe Ann Wilson; Clarinets--Natalie Wilson, Roy Christen, Darlene Myers, Ellen Christen, Dolores Hannan; Baritone--John Hannan. The band has shown much improvement during the year. They played six numbers for the March meeting of the Mothers' Club.

TOY BAND

The thirty members in the toy band include all the pupils in the first and second grades. Kenneth Aspacher was the drum major until he moved to Gibsonburg, but James Helm has very ably taken his place. They played at the Christmas Program.

ORCHESTRA

The orchestra, composed of twenty members, consists of five violins, five clarinets, one saxophone, one trombone, one horn, three trumpets, one piano, one drum, one alto horn, and one flute.

The orchestra has been very active this year. They played at the Junior Play, Christmas Program, Sportsmen's Banquet, Salem Luther League Play, March meeting of the Wood County Teachers' Institute, Senior Play, and Commencement.

MIXED CHORUS

The mixed chorus is composed of forty-six students of the upper six grades. Donald Joseph is the pianist. This group sang three numbers at the Christmas Program and three numbers for the Mothers' Club at their April meeting. They took part in the Wood County Music Festival.

IN APPRECIATION

Mr. Geisbuhler, who retires in June, has been custodian of Troy School for twelve years. He has taken excellent care of the school building and the grounds adjoining it. He has kept the building warm and clean and helped much in creating a friendly atmosphere so necessary for a happy school life. In behalf of the school and the community, the seniors wish Mr. Geisbuhler many happy years of retirement for his faithful service to Troy School.

GROUP OF YOUNG WOMEN FROM THE ST. JOSEPH'S
SCHOOL - ST. JOSEPH'S

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

The high school Home Economics girls, under the direction of Miss Wirick, organized a club called "Snappy Workers". The purpose of this club is to strive for a higher goal in home making.

The officers elected were:

President-----Ardith Spahn
Vice-President-----Kathryn Jacobs
Secretary-----Ruth Kopp
News Reporter-----Lois McCrary

The motto chosen by the club is "A Stitch in Time Saves Nine."

Meetings are held on the second Thursday of each month. At each meeting, a demonstration on personal appearance is given and games pertaining to Home Economics are played.

The Snappy Workers club gave a tea for their mothers, faculty women, and wives of the faculty men and school board. A style show was part of the entertainment, at which the girls modeled their garments. A motion picture, concerning phases interesting to home-makers, was enjoyed by all.

Our sewing room has been made home-like by making it into a combination living, dressing, and sewing room.

A few quotations applicable to phases of Home Economics are:

"As you sew, so shall you rip."

"The body is the shell of the soul and the clothes the husks of that shell, but the husks often tell what the kernel is."

"Cheerful looks make every dish a feast."

"Removal of stains--'Out, out, I say'!"

"Cleanliness is next to godliness."

"Dissatisfaction comes not so much from lack of income as from the measure of income."

BOOSTER CLUB

The Booster Club, organized September 13, 1940 under the direction of Miss Wirick, is composed of girls from the upper four grades.

At the first meeting these officers were elected:

President ----- Esther Miller
Secretary ----- Ruth Kimmel

The motto chosen for the club is "Why Be a 'Booer'? Be a Booster!"

The purpose of this club is to create a desire to participate in physical activities, to instill sportsmanship, and to aid all sports in the school--in other words--to be a booster of sports.

For each activity a member participates in, she receives a certain number of points. The points for the different activities are as follows:

- 100 points for selling candy, ice cream, gum and tickets for each basketball and each football season.
- 25 points for each one-mile hike, and each softball, volley ball, badminton, goal high or basketball game played.
- 25 points for each active captain of these various games, for each officer of the club, scorekeeper, referee, and for selling athletic booklets.
- 10 points for each meeting attended.

A bronze pin is awarded for 200 points and honorable mention is given for 100 points.

The thirteen girls who were awarded pins were: Lois Jacobs, Vera McCrary, Geraldine Welling, Joanne Huss, Vivian Rife, Esther Miller, Joyce Baker, Carolyn Johanssen, June Kurfess, Betty Swartz, Doris Pertner, Lois Miller, Marcena Michel. The girls who received honorable mention were: Beatrice Aspacher, Patricia Reamsnyder, Lois McCrary, Delores Ruch.

SCHOOL PAPER STAFF

The first "Trojan" was published in 1938 with Betty Jane Landwehr leading the staff as editor. The staff aimed to bring the parents in closer contact with the school, record events of interest to the pupils, and to give the students an opportunity to become acquainted with the working of a news paper. The "Trojan" was published every month and was in a magazine form.

Arlene Hoelter was appointed as editor the second year, and the publication was managed the same as in the previous year. The senior class had charge of the last issue, which was larger and somewhat like a year-book.

This year an entirely new policy was adopted by the staff. The paper was published every few weeks and more closely resembled a newspaper in form. All students were encouraged to make contributions.

Mr. Grubaugh has been our advisor all three years.

SENIOR PLAY

YOUNG DOCTOR YOUNG

By Richard Hill Wilkinson

This human interest play in three acts, given on May 8, 1941, was well attended and was enjoyed by all for it held the attention of everyone for the full evening. The entire action of the play transpires in the combination living and dining room of Mrs. Bertha Young, in a small community some few miles south of Chicago. Craig Young comes home to find that Doctor Harvey is retiring and is going to turn his practice over to him. After a series of dramatic events Craig finally decides to accept Doctor Harvey's offer. The play was under the direction of Miss Wirick.

JUNIOR PLAY

BOLTS AND NUTS

By Jay Tobias

Nuts isn't the word for it. The play was a natural for the somewhat balmy Juniors, who presented "Bolts and Nuts" on December 10, before a capacity crowd. The Bolts were the real McCoys, but the nuts were fictitious. The lot of them kept the crowd in laughter for two and a half hours. The play was ably directed by Miss Wirick.

Wind is air in a hurry.

A fishing rod is a pole with a fool at one end and a worm at the other.

A hen is the only creature on earth who can sit still and produce dividends.

Originality is undetected imitation.

Dust is mud with the juice squeezed out.

Ice is water that stayed out in the cold all night and froze.

A fan is what you brush warm air off with.

Salt is what you put in potatoes to make them taste good.

Women live longer than men because paint is a great preservative.

Etiquette is the noise you don't make when you are eating soup.

Name three collective nouns---fly paper, waste basket, and vacuum cleaner.

An old maid is a girl drowning in the Ocean of Love because she hasn't a buoy to cling to.

An optimist is one who sees the doughnut, and a pessimist is one who sees the hole.

An athlete is a dignified bunch of muscles, unable to split wood or dump the ashes.

A vocabulary is an obstruction in your throat that makes you talk.

An exam is a forcible extraction of ideas from a vacuum.

A masterpiece is one of the excuses that Mr. Rider gets.

Relatives are inherited critics.

Classical music is music you can't whistle and wouldn't whistle even if you could.

Refinement is the ability to yawn without opening your mouth.

A friend is one who knows all about you and loves you just the same.

A smile is a thing of immense face value.

An ash tray is the place to put ashes and stubs when the room has no floor.

BANQUETS

Football

The home economics girls served the dinner for the 1940 football banquet held in the school cafeteria on November 18.

Mr. Grubaugh acted as toastmaster. After the presentation of the awards by Mr. Amos, Warren E. Steller, Director of Athletics at Bowling Green State University, gave an interesting talk on the importance of athletics in the school. A string trio, consisting of Miss Thelma Goetz, Mrs. Marcus Welling, and Mrs. Norman Ernsthausen furnished the music.

Basketball

The 1941 annual basketball banquet was held in the school cafeteria on March 28. The dinner was served by the home economics girls.

The toastmaster was Mr. Chambers. After the welcome by Mr. Loomis and the response by Glenn Helm, Mr. Sturgeon presented the awards to the boys. Mr. Rider introduced the guest speaker, Mr. R. P. Coad of Bowling Green State University. Irvin Jacobs led the group in singing with Donald Joseph at the piano.

Junior-Senior Banquet

The Junior-Senior Banquet was held Friday, May 2, at Troy High School. The cafeteria room was converted into an Indian village.

After the dinner, Donald Joseph, the toastmaster took charge. Catherine Christiansen, president of the senior class responded to the welcome given by Joe Loomis, president of the junior class. Toasts were given by Mr. E. H. Rider and Mr. G. V. Huss. Special music was furnished by a quartet from Bowling Green State University. After the banquet the group attended a motion picture.

MOTHERS' CLUB

The Mothers' Club was organized December 17, 1941. The aim of the club is to raise money for the benefit of organizations of the music department. Regular meetings are held the second Tuesday of each month.

At the first meeting these officers were elected:

President . . . Mrs. Robert Kurfess
Treasurer . . . Mrs. Gordan Huss
Secretary . . . Mrs. Harold Grubs

The president appointed Mrs. Norman Ernsthausen, chairman of the social committee and Mrs. Clarence Michel, chairman of the program committee.

The mothers discussed the different ways to make money for the school at the next meeting. They decided to give a chicken-ham dinner. Mrs. L. M. Christiansen was appointed general chairman of the dinner.

The plans for the dinner were completed at the regular February meeting. The junior band played a selection, and Ruth Kimmel played two trumpet solos. After the meeting the executive committee served tea and wafers in the cafeteria room.

The Mothers' Club served the chicken-ham dinner on February 13. Approximately 400 people attended this dinner and the concert given by the school band.

At the March meeting, Mrs. Babione gave an interesting talk on the child's responsibility in character development. It was based on Angelo Patri's statement, "Nothing but responsibility will develop character." This was followed by a group discussion. The beginners band played six numbers.

At the April meeting, Gladys Breisack of Maumee gave a book review of Perry Burgess' "Who Walk Alone". The music was furnished by the mixed chorus.

Mrs. Brose talked on "China Today" at the May meeting.

GIRL SCOUTS

The Girl Scout Troop was organized in 1937 under the leadership of Miss Viva Eckert, a teacher in this school. Miss Mary Ream served as lieutenant. There were six charter members: Marie Sander, Betty Evans, Eleanor Eilert, Ruth Kimmel, Carolyn Johanssen, and Marcena Michel. Of these, only the last two are still scouts.

The following year, 1938, the leadership was taken over by Miss Eileen Rosendale. Mrs. R. F. Claus became our leader in the latter part of 1938. At this time our troop was registered with the National Headquarters in Washington. Miss Louise Williams was appointed lieutenant; and Mrs. Claus, official leader. An entirely new program field for Girl Scouts was introduced and readily accepted by our troop, as well as by all other troops throughout the United States. This program consists of ten different program fields of a wide range and variable opportunities of learning. Since the adoption of this program our troop has been much more active.

The American Legion Auxiliary presented the Girl Scouts with an American flag and standard. A scout flag and standard were purchased by the Scouts at the same time. Funds for enterprises, equipment, and entertainments have been earned by the Scouts in various ways; namely, the annual cookie sale, bake sales, and doughnut sales.

One of the most serviceable community enterprises undertaken by the Girl Scouts in the past two years is the distribution of Christmas toys collected and repaired by the girls. Boxes are packed and given to needy families. The Girl Scouts participate in the National Day Parade and programs and are willing at any time to lend a hand at any community affair.

At present the troop has twelve members. Louise Williams serves as Lieutenant; Rosemary Fortlander, as Scribe; and Delores Ruch, as Treasurer. Troop Committee Members are Mrs. Clarence Michel, Mrs. Elmer Jacobs, and Mrs. Harold Trout.

BOY SCOUTS

During the year 1936, Mr. E. H. Rider organized a group of boys and in the year 1937 a charter as a Troop in the Boy Scouts of America was granted. The Luckey Troop was given number 332 as its Toledo Area Council number. The following boys were charter members this first year: George McCrary, Glenn Baker, George Brinker, Lowen Meyer, Glen Landwehr, Joseph Loomis, Glenn Helm, Wayne Webb, Donald Joseph, Robert Hessman, Ronald Layman, Cornell Juergens, Robert Young.

The first year was very successful. The Troop won the Toledo Area Council Achievement contest and a Good Conduct Banner at Camp Miakonda. Only four of the Achievement Awards were given that year in the entire Council made up of many troops. During the summer of 1938, one week was spent at Camp Miakonda near Sylvania. Many of the boys passed tests and all of them had a good time especially when they abducted a member of the Indian Village.

Mr. Rider continued as Scoutmaster the second year. Mr. Orville Decker took over these duties in 1938, but Mr. Rider again resumed the duties the fourth and fifth years. Mr. Glover Grubaugh is the Scoutmaster at the present time.

For several years the local Troop was sponsored by the P. T. A. It is now sponsored by the school. The Troop Committee is as follows: Mr. Rider, Chairman, Mr. Charles Sturgeon, and Mr. Fred Chambers.

Troop 332 has enjoyed many good times. How many old members remember the "tall stories" told by Scout Glenn Baker around the camp fire? How many scouts who went camping over-night for the first time remember the boy who forgot his duffle bag and Mr. Rider walked back half a mile with him to get it? Who was afraid to sleep alone at Camp Miakonda? Who was it who killed the most or the least flies at the dining hall at Miakonda?

Scouting in Luckey is paying big dividends. All boys twelve years of age and over are invited to join.

FOOTBALL

The first game of six-man football in Wood County was played at Troy School in October 1938. This first year the Trojans played teams that had more experience; consequently, they were unable to push over any wins. They met one team that was evenly matched but lost by two points.

The second season was a little more encouraging with one win and seven losses. The squad was very small that year, for only ten boys participated.

The past season showed a further improvement in playing. The experience of the two previous years gave the boys more confidence. The twenty boys who came out were more evenly matched in weight with the teams they played.

The season was not entirely successful, but they managed three wins out of seven games. At times the playing was excellent. They opened the season with a win over Waterville and later won from Bradner and Monclova but lost two to Risingsun, one to Clyde, and one to Jackson-Burgoon. The poorest showing of the season was made in our first game with Risingsun, on Dads' Day. The game ended 45-0 in their favor.

The biggest handicap the Trojans had to overcome in most of their games was size and weight. Most of the teams were heavier and had several seniors in their lineup. Gibsonburg, especially, had a big edge over the Trojans in this respect; and with a large squad, they were able to substitute more often without losing that advantage.

The attendance at the games has continued to improve, and last year the crowd showed much greater enthusiasm and interest. This has made it possible for the athletic association to purchase better equipment, thus cutting down the possibilities of injuries to the players.

Much of the success of football at Troy is due to Mr. Amos, the coach, and to Mr. Loomis.

The 1940-41 basketball season opened with eight men back from the team of last season. They were: Juergens and Joseph, forwards; Meyer, center; Loomis and Helm, guards; Landwehr, guard, center or forward; Kurfess and Young, guards. Jennings and D. Stewart, forwards were new to the squad.

The Trojans opened their season on November 29, by defeating Risingsun and closed it by losing to Milton in the tournament. The letter winners this year were: Jennings, Juergens, Joseph, Loomis, Landwehr, Helm and Meyer. Although the Trojans lost many of their games during the season, several were by a close score. Three were lost by only one point--one in an overtime.

WOOD COUNTY TOURNAMENT

The Trojans drew Milton in the tournament. The score was very close all the way through with the game changing hands several times.

At the end of the first quarter the Trojans trailed by one point, getting four points out of six on foul shots. They came back in the second to score nine points, leading by two at the half. The Trojans led by a six point margin until late in the third, when the Milton boys broke through the Trojan defense. They started the fourth with a three point lead but Milton broke through just once too often and the game ended with the score Troy, 34--Milton, 35.

RESERVES

The Trojan reserves had these ten boys reporting: Donald Miller, Donald and LeRoy Stewart, Marvin Moenter, Paul Kurfess, Robert Young, Robert Harmeyer, Clyde Tracy, Lyle Myers and Lowell Samson. They had a successful season with nine wins and five losses.

BASKETBALL

JUNIOR HIGH BASKETBALL

Fifteen boys eagerly answered the call for junior high basketball. Lacking both experience and size the squad balanced the scales with enthusiasm.

Although most of the season was spent in mastering the fundamentals of the game, a small schedule was played. Webster defeated the local lads by a margin of 19 to 13 in two games. The fast Woodville team racked up a victory by a score of 24 to 14.

On entering the Wood County Tournament at Webster, the Trojans drew the Walbridge quintet in the opener. After a close game they were defeated by a 16 to 12 score. The scoring for the Troy thin lads was Ruch 6, Evans 2, Kurfess 2, and Huss 2.

As the season progressed the team developed accuracy and confidence, and promised to be fine varsity material in future years. Four members of the squad will be eligible for varsity competition next season. They are: Gene Ruch, Robert Evans, Elmer Miller, and Arthur Christen.

INTERCLASS TOURNAMENT

This year the arrangement of the interclass tournament was altered somewhat in that the seventh and eighth grade boys took part. Since the junior class was very large, it was divided into two groups.

At the end of the first round, the freshmen had won over the seventh and eighth by a score of 17 to 7 and the juniors had defeated the seniors 21 to 6.

The second round ended with the sophomores victors over the freshmen and the junior A team victors over the junior B team. The championship game ended with the junior class out in front of the sophomores by four points.

TRACK

With very little practice, the track team entered the county meet with high spirits. The following boys participated: Glenn Helm and LeRoy Stewart, 100 yard dash; LeRoy Stewart, 220 yard dash; Joe Loomis, $\frac{1}{2}$ mile run; Bruce Baker and Lyle Myers, 1 mile run; LeRoy Stewart, 440 yard dash; Lowell Hanely, discus throw; George McCrary, shot put; Glenn Helm and LeRoy Stewart, high jump; Glenn Helm and Lowell Hanely, pole vault; Glenn Helm, LeRoy Stewart, Bruce Baker, and Lowell Hanely, $\frac{1}{2}$ mile relay.

JOKES

Boss: "What did you do when you worked in the sawmill?"

Applicant: "I came, I saw, and I sawed and sawed and sawed."

Miss Hartenfeld: "How are you getting along with your arithmetic?"

Dickie: "Well, I've learned to add up the oughts, but the figures still bother me."

Mr. Sturgeon: "Will you please give me some prepared monoaceticacidester of salicylic acid?"

Druggist: "Do you mean aspirin, sir?"

Mr. Sturgeon: "Yes, that's it. I never can remember that name."

Mr. Rider: "What are the outstanding contributions that chemistry has given the world?"

Elmer: "Blonds."

Joyce: "Did you know that the library was closed?"

Clyde: "No, how come?"

Joyce: "Because we found smallpox in the dictionary."

Miss Brown: "If I subtract 18 from 32, what's the difference?"

Rolland: "That's what I say. Who cares?"

Cornell: "What purpose does that bridge on your violin serve?"

Carolyn: "Oh, that's to get the music across."

Tourist: "Whatja got in the shape of automobile tires?"

Salesmen: "Funeral wreaths, life preservers, invalid cushions and doughnuts."

They strolled the lane together,
The sky was studded with stars:
They reached the gate together,
And he lifted for her the bars.
She raised her brown eyes to him;
There's nothing between them now,
For he was just the hired man
And she was a Jersey cow.
